College students vote Likud

College students across North America gave the Likud Party 50 Knesset seats in mock elections held over the Internet. According to voting on a Web site developed by Upstart Activist, a Jerusalem-based advocacy training group, the Labor Party won 16, Shinui 8 and Herut 7. The pro-marijuana Green Leaf Party, along with National Union and the National Religious Party, all won 6 seats. Meretz and United Torah Judaism won 4 each; Hadash, Shas and Yisrael Ba'Aliyah won 3; Tzomet won 2; and the Men's Rights Party and United Arab List won 1 seat each.
